Kaisermutt Translation Notes

Thanks again to Watawheel for the raws.

All of the mentions of phobias/suicide at the beginning there are 自殺 (jisatsu, suicide) with furigana フォビア (phobia)

On page 5 she says 負け犬 (makeinu) with furigana アンダードッグ (underdog). These definitely don't have the same nuance. 負け犬 is universally bad in all situations I've seen it, not someone you'd root for like the English underdog.

On page 16 未練 (miren, regret) has furigana プリクラ (purikura, photo booth photo)

On page 21 Kirari says she will hold the hand of "過去"(kako, the past) with furigana ソル君 (soru-kun)

The actual wording on page 26 is 大親友を傷つけた罪は重い (the crime of injuring my dear friend is heavy), and 大親友 (daishin'yuu) has the furigana マイシスター (mai shisutaa, my sister)

Luna definitely has the most English expressions integrated into her speech, if you couldn't tell from all the "gou tuu heru" and "haro ando desutoroi". This also extends to what she calls Lucio, "マイラヴァー" (mai ravaa, notably using ヴァ for va, which is less common that using バ (ba) even when the original word uses v)

On page 31 the first few "Lucios" switch between katakana, hiragana, and kanji, but all the ones in the bottom panel are kanji

Yeah Luna is ルナ, with no kanji. There's no ambiguity on how to read this one (although there's no ambiguity on how to read a name with furigana, that still bugs me about prior scans)
